

Application to Serve on the
Hernando Mayor's Youth Council

Mayor Tom Ferguson
475 West Commerce St.
662-429-9092

The mission of the Hernando Mayor's Youth Council is to serve as role models in the community and among the youth of Hernando. Youth council members develop leadership skills by taking an active role in city sponsored activities and youth lead initiatives aiming to engage citizens of all ages. The Hernando Mayor's Youth Council strengthens their community through volunteerism and increased communication with the Mayor and other city departments to improve the quality of life for the citizens in Hernando.

What would you like to see

What types of community projects/service would you like to be part of?

I understand that being a member of the Mayor's Youth Council carries certain responsibilities. In order to maintain membership on the Mayor's Youth Council, it is important to make an honest effort to commit to this organization. MYC meets two evenings per month at City Hall and offers many city sponsored community service projects. I agree to conduct myself as properly befitting a representative of my city and abide by all guidelines of the council.
